

"Lightness" of a 'Dorothy Dodd' On the Scales

A great many interesting facts may be discovered with a pair of scales, but it is doubtful if any single fact will be more interesting and valuable to the average woman than the weight of her shoes.

For this tells her the number of ounces that must be lifted thousands of times each day, and a little calculation will show that she lifts tons of shoe leather a day—no small labor in itself.

The "Dorothy Dodd" shoe saves the lifting of more than one and one-half tons every day. A pair of "Dorothy Dodd" shoes are several ounces lighter than ordinary shoes. The feet are just so much more comfortable, and you are so much less tired. Put a pair to the test!

A BIG MEETING

Council Holds its Regular Session Tonight.

A Number of Important Matters to be Disposed of.

The regular meeting of the council will be held tonight with considerable business on hand. The ordinance fixing the salaries of various city officers, effective after the November election, will not be ready for presentation, as the committee has not settled on the various amounts.

Among the matters to be considered will be the spur track of the Illinois Central into Mechanicsburg, which created so much discussion a few weeks ago, the matter of reinstating Capt. Wm. E. Augustus, former assistant chief of the fire department, and the ordinance condemning the railroad property on First street for a wharf.

The accounts of Marshal Crow and Prosecuting Attorney Gilbert will probably be allowed without objection.

Among other things that may come up are the matter of paying the city supervisors for the work they recently did. The law allows them pay for only twenty-four days, while they worked over fifty. It is not known what will be done, but it is intimated that a fight, if made, will be against paying the whole amount solely on account of its being contrary to law.

The matter of having new sidewalks built at the same time the brick streets are built may also come up for settlement, and is likely to bring on another fight. There will be an accumulation of three weeks' business to dispose of.

WHAT IS IT

A Remarkable Animal Caught
by a Boy.

No One Who Has Seen It Can Name It —Wounded Some Time Ago.

Arthur Emery, a boy residing at 1431 West Court street, the last house on that thoroughfare, has the carcass of a remarkable animal which no one has yet been able to name.

He caught it alive on Bradshaw's creek Saturday and it had been wounded. He took it home and placed it in a tub. The animal was covered with tar, and baffles description. It had long curved tusks and is neither otter, muskrat, beaver, groundhog or any other animal that the scores of people who saw it ever saw or heard of. It lived until yesterday, and has since it died been skinned and will be stuffed.

It is evidently the same animal that Mr. Frank Rieke two or three weeks ago wounded with a pistol on a creek bank. Mr. Rieke yesterday looked at it, and says that he cannot tell what it is, but that it is not an otter, beaver or anything else he ever saw. The wound in the creature's leg is the one inflicted by Mr. Rieke's pistol. At the time Mr. Rieke thought the animal was an otter, but after seeing it closely yesterday he concluded that it is either some strange animal never seen in these parts before or else some kind of a hybrid.

THE HAND OF DEATH

Miss Virginia Noble Dies on West Jefferson Street.

Mrs. Zeke Brown Succumbs to Cancer After a Long Illness.

Miss Virginia Noble, a Christian lady of many lovable traits, died last night at 9 o'clock after a long illness at the family residence at Twentieth and Jefferson streets. She was a daughter of the late Col. John C. Noble, the veteran journalist, and had lived all her life in this county, until recent years at Villa Calhoun in Arcadia. She was a lady of literary attainments, and during her earlier life wrote for a number of periodicals. She possessed an unusually bright mind, and was a great favorite with all who knew her.

Miss Noble was a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families of West Kentucky, and in addition to many relatives she leaves a host of friends to mourn her death. She leaves a mother and several sisters and brothers, the latter being Mrs. Emma Clark and Miss Mamie Noble, the well known school teacher, and Col. Ed P. Noble, former president of the board of aldermen, and Messrs. John, Robert and Will Noble.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock from Grace Episcopal church, burial at Oak Grove.

Mrs. Mamie Williams Brown, wife of Mr. Z. E. Brown, the well known insurance man of 1110 Monroe street, died last night at 9 o'clock at her home of cancer after a long illness.

The deceased was a good Christian woman and left many friends to mourn her demise. She was born in this country in 1867 a few miles from Paducah and had resided in this county all her life. She married in this county and leaves a husband, mother, one sister and five brothers. They are Mrs. E. L. Stephens of Paris, Ky., and Messrs. Jack, Duke, Dick, A. J. and Hugh Williams.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, the services to be conducted by Rev. G. W. Perryman, interment at Oak Grove.

CARNIVAL NEWS

Soliciting Committee to Renew its Work.

Several New Members Appointed and Assigned Territories.

The promoters for the coming carnival will arrive in a short time now, and will find everything well under way. The soliciting committee, which is getting funds for the free attractions and general advertisement of the carnival, will renew its activity at once.

A number of new members have been appointed. Messrs. L. A. Lagomarsino and G. R. Davis have the territory on Broadway from First to Third street including lower Court. Messrs. H. G. Johnston and R. C. Benner that of the wholesale districts and the northern part of the city. Messrs. Charles Weille and H. O. Bronaugh the section on Broadway from Third to Sixth streets, and Messrs. Henry Bailey and George Goodman south of Court streets.

JUSTICE YOUNG'S COURT.

Justice Jesse Young has not yet set the case against Joe Sommers, colored, for cow stealing, but will probably turn the case over to the circuit court. Sommers is a negro who was arrested on the charge of stealing a cow from George Wilkins, white, a resident of Tennessee street, last week. He was arrested Saturday afternoon late and gave bond, Mr. William Bradshaw, a former employer, becoming his bondsman.

SMITHLAND COURT.

The regular April term of the Livingston circuit court will begin next Monday. There are a number of cases on the docket but none of unusual importance. Commonwealth's Attorney John L. Grayot was in the city today en route there to prepare for it.
